Personal and Social.....

A Number of Pleasing Social Events During the Past Week—A New Whist Club—Arrivals and Departures.

During the past week the social world has had to draw back its silken skirts with quiet grace to make room for the march of national affairs. First in line comes the triumphant banner of "Uncle Marcus Aurelius," then "Teddy's" mighty host of converts, straining their manly throats in emulation of their leader; next the Democrats, off for a four years' holiday before seriously assuming the affairs of state. Yet above all the din and roar of the electoral hubbub comes a faint little chuckle from the blind ruler, who has held his sway long ere Kingdom, Empire or Republic was ever established, and rules on complacently while nations rise and fall. In spite of high tariff, trusts, 16 to 1, stuffed ballots or the most modern and approved political frauds he is now re-elected and worshipped by his willing subjects. Rulers in high places should give him method some thought.

And no hymen's bells ring out clear in the midst of "hurrahs for McKinley." Pippa Passes in Democratic hearts and Cupid still does business at his old stand. "The little shop under the Bridge."

Miss Clara Gertrude Fox, of this city, and Mr. Earnest B. Wilson, of Richmond, were married on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. John Wilkinson, No. 240 York street, Rev. C. E. Grammar, of Christ Episcopal Church, officiating. The bride was given away by Hon. C. Brooks Johnston, Mr. Knox Wilson, of Richmond, acted as best man. There were no other attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left Norfolk on the Bay boat for a Northern tour. They will be at home, 819 West Grace street, Richmond, after November 20. Mr. Wilson is a prominent box manufacturer of the Capital City. His bride has resided here for several years and is well-known in Norfolk.

Old St. Paul's was crowded with bright expectant faces on Wednesday at 4 o'clock to witness the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Nash to Dr. Edwin G. Lee. The church was artistically decorated with cool, fresh-looking palms and chrysanthemums, with numerous candles on the altar, shedding a soft glow over the pretty tableau. The Rev. Beverly D. Tucker conducted the ceremony and the benediction was pronounced by the Right Rev. A. M. Randolph, Bishop of Southern Virginia.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Dr. Herbert Nash, and was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Mary L. Nash, and eight ushers, Messrs. J. Leighton Hubbard, Theo. Williams, Stuart Johns, Richard Taylor, W. W. Old, Jr., J. B. McGaw, Page Lee and Dr. B. R. Kennon. They were met at the steps of the chancel by the groom and his best man, Dr. Phillips Lee, of Baltimore, where the betrothal service was held, after which they proceeded to the altar, where the ceremony was completed and they were pronounced man and wife.

Mr. MacLachlan, of St. Luke's, presided at the organ.

The bride wore a graceful dress of soft clinging material, diaphanous veil of tulle, and carried a white prayer book with the marriage service marked by lilacs of the valley. The maid of honor was gowned in white crepe de chene and held a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The boutonnières of the ushers were also white.

At 4:30 a small reception was tendered the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties at the home of the bride, on Freemason street. Dr. and Mrs. Lee left on the evening boat.

The Tuesday Whist Club met at the home of Miss Johns, Botetourt street. The game was scientifically indulged in for two hours, after which light refreshments were served, affording ample opportunities for discussion of good plays and ill.

Cards are out to the marriage of Miss Eugenia Davis Thomas to Mr. Keith Falconer Trant on Monday, November the 12th, at St. Paul's Church.

Another whist club is being agitated, but the ranks have not yet been filled.

Mrs. Nancy Cable, who is visiting Mrs. Hope in Hampton, was in the city Wednesday to attend the wedding of her brother, Dr. Lee.

Mrs. Stanley Tyler, of Richmond, has been the guest of Mrs. E. H. Bull, Freemason street, during the past week.

Mr. Robert Baldwin left for Baltimore on Friday last to join his wife, who has been visiting in that city. They are expected to return on Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. Tazewell Hubard will be glad to hear that she has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be out again.

In spite of the fierce northwester Thursday night, the hop at the Montefiore Hall, gotten up by Mr. Charles Boudoir, was a great success. The dancing was the merrier for the storm outside.

Thursday's Baltimore Sun reports the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Rice Page to Mr. Charles McCormick Brown, both of Berryville, Va. The groom's best man was Mr. L. W. Childrey, of this city, and Dr. Edwin E. Field was one of the groomsmen.

Mr. Percy Stephenson entertained a few friends at a bowling party at the Country Club Thursday evening. Those who received and enjoyed his hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hughes Little, Miss Wheat, of Berryville; Miss Little, Mr. Conrad and Mr. Brockenbrough.

Invitations have been received in Norfolk to the wedding of Miss Fanny Gray to Mr. Joseph Wright, both of Winchester, Va. Miss Gray was a former guest of Mrs. William Cook and will be remembered pleasantly by her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor Souther Reid have issued cards to the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Kyle and Mr. Brevard Davidson Miller. The ceremony is to be celebrated at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday evening, November 17th, after which a reception will be tendered to the numerous friends of the bride at the home of her parents on York street.

Mrs. Richard Wright has moved from her former residence on College Place to her new home on Boiesvane avenue, Ghent.

Dr. Robert Spilman has been appointed one of the city coroners to succeed the late Dr. E. V. Newton.
